SOLOMONS ISLAND ITINERARY OPTIONS

DAY 1

Upon arrival, head straight to the Solomons Boardwalk for a scenic stroll. Be sure to stop in at The Blue Shell Gifts & Décor, Hooked Gifts & Boutique, and carmen's gallery to pick out the perfect souvenir, then grab a tasty treat from The Ice Cream Place, BRRRR Ice Cream, Shakes & Crepes or Cone Island in the warmer months.

A short walk brings you to the J.C. Lore & Sons Oyster House, where you can explore the heritage of the island's oyster industry. Then, hop aboard Cruisin' Tikis Solomons Island or Big Kahuna Cruises. Both boats offer a tiki vibe on the water, while the famous Tiki Bar & Grill Solomons Island provides island vibes at any time of day on land!

Dinner awaits at Island Hideaway, The Lighthouse Restaurant & Dock Bar or Trifecta. Finally, check in to your home away from home at one of three adorable B&Bs: Back Creek Inn, Blue Heron Bed & Breakfast or Solomons Victorian Inn.

DAY 2

Get out on the water early on one of many locally-owned charter fishing boats or enjoy a sailboat cruise with Sail Solomons, then keep the water vibes going strong by hopping on a rental jet ski, kayak or pontoon boat from SOMD Water Sports, Bunky's Charter Boats or Patuxent Adventure Center. Afterward, slow things down with a bit of dock fishing or bird watching at the Solomons Boat Launch and Fishing Pier, soaking up the peaceful energy of the island.*

Enjoy a relaxed lunch at The Pier or Bugeye Grill or opt for something casual and quick at Cryptic Pizza or Bluefish Pub. Next, take a cooking or mixology class or just chill out on the deck at No Thyme to Cook. Dinner tonight is a treat at La Vela Italian Restaurant or The CD Café, and afterward, learn some local history while you stroll on a Spooky Solomons walking tour.

MUST-SEE SPOTS

South County is full of charm, creativity and adventure. Here are a few spots that make it truly unforgettable.

ANNMARIE SCULPTURE GARDEN & ARTS CENTER

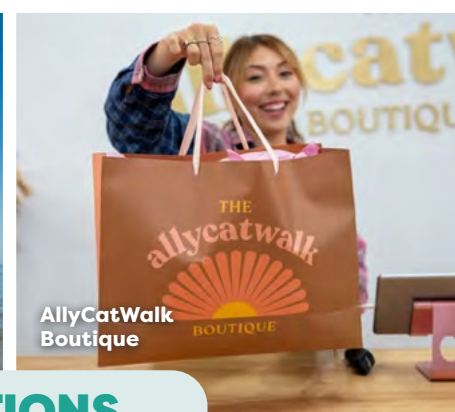

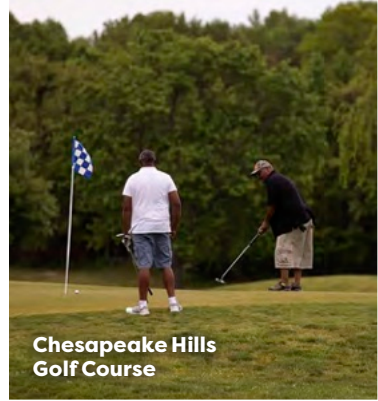

Explore Annmarie Sculpture Garden & Arts Center, a Smithsonian Affiliate. Spread across over 30 acres of forest and meadows, Annmarie Garden offers a beautiful, serene setting where art and nature meet. Wander the trails to enjoy an inspiring collection of outdoor sculpture or step inside the Arts Building to explore two galleries with rotating exhibits, browse the gift shop, visit the Nature Nook and animal friends or create a masterpiece in the artLAB, a hands-on creative reuse studio. Throughout the year, Annmarie hosts a wide variety of festivals and markets including Artsfest, the Fairy & Gnome Home Festival and the Sea Glass & Beach Craft Market, along with art, clay and nature programs for all ages.

CALVERT MARINE MUSEUM

At the Calvert Marine Museum, prehistoric fossils, natural history and maritime heritage come together to tell the unique story of the Chesapeake Bay. Families can come face-to-face with the jaws of a giant megalodon shark and meet playful river otters. Step into the Discovery Room, an interactive space where kids dig for 8-20 million-year-old fossils, climb a model lighthouse, or set sail in a skiff. Explore the Life in the Bay exhibit with terrapins, horseshoe crabs and other fascinating creatures. Outdoors, stroll the marsh walk and tour the historic Drum Point Lighthouse, a furnished cottage-style lighthouse open year-round. Take a cruise on the historic Wm. B. Tennison, and enjoy annual favorites like the Waterside Music Series, Solomons Maritime Festival or Sharkfest!

JEFFERSON PATTERSON PARK AND MUSEUM

Connect with the past at Jefferson Patterson Park and Museum, a place full of secrets waiting to be unearthed. Hike miles of trails, explore the visitor center full of interactive exhibits and tour the newly restored Patterson House and Gardens or attend a large-scale on-site event like Children's Day on the Farm.

SOUTH COUNTY ITINERARY OPTIONS

DAY 1

Check-in to a cozy room at Hilton Garden Inn Solomons, Solomons Inn Resort or Quality Inn Solomons, camp at the Navy Recreation Center Solomons (military & DoW) or enjoy a one-of-a-kind overnight at the Cove Point Lighthouse Keeper's House. Drop your bags, take a breath, and get ready to explore! Spend a morning shopping local. Find trendy pieces at AllyCatWalk Boutique, swing by Maertens Fine Jewelry & Gifts for something elegant and pop into The SPOT Thrift, SMILE Thrift and Grandmother's Store for unexpected treasures.

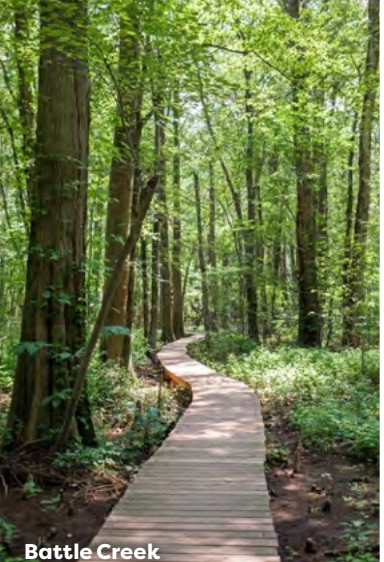

Enjoy a hearty plate of ribs at Boomerangs Ribs & Seafood or enjoy a delicious entrée at local favorites like Buckets Bar and Grill, Ruddy Duck Brewery & Grill, Anglers Seafood Bar & Grill, Atomic Seafood and Bar or Sunset Creek at Vera's. Feeling some international vibes? Check out Las Catrina's Authentic Mexican Kitchen, Thai 99, Happy Buddha, Salsa's Mexican Café, Island Sushi & Grille or Dynasty. Then take yourself on a tasting tour at Cove Point Winery, Barrel 9 and Perigeaux Vineyards & Winery.

DAY 2

Kickstart your day with breakfast at The Frying Pan, a coffee from The Beanery, or a fruity concoction from WhataBoba or Juice Buzz, then lace up your hiking shoes to check out Cove Point Lighthouse in the warmer months and go explore Calvert Cliffs State Park, famous for its fossil-rich cliffs and serene trails. You might even find a prehistoric shark tooth! Then take the kids to burn off some more energy at Flag Ponds Nature Park, Cove Point Park and Pool or Imaginarium and get everyone a treat at Rita's Italian Ice & Frozen Custard.

Spend a few hours golfing at Chesapeake Hills Golf Course, then shop 'til you drop at Chesapeake MarketPlace, Ye Old Cutlery & Gift Shop, Buehler's Marketplace and Retroasis. Pick up a fresh seafood lunch to-go from Captain Smith's Seafood or Chesapeake's Bounty. If you're feeling lucky, Island Bingo is the place to be! Prefer something quieter? Head to Hidden Harbour or The Tavern for a peaceful and relaxed evening.

CENTRAL COUNTY

TOWN OF CHESAPEAKE BEACH

Nestled along the scenic shores of the Chesapeake Bay, Chesapeake Beach offers the perfect blend of small-town charm and coastal adventure.

This town's story began in the 1890s, when the Chesapeake Beach Railway Company purchased the land and developed it as a resort destination. More than 130 years later, that history continues along the Chesapeake Beach Railway Trail, where visitors can enjoy scenic views of Fishing Creek, home to abundant wildlife and peaceful marshlands. To dive even deeper into the past, the Chesapeake Beach Railway Museum brings the resort era to life with artifacts, photographs and engaging exhibits.

Those planning a memorable getaway will find everything in one place at Rod 'N' Reel Resort, from waterfront dining and live entertainment, to overnight accommodations and relaxing bay views. Be sure to grab a coffee at Otto's Brew Bar and check out the cute gift shop on-site aptly named the "Boat-ique."

With vibrant parks, beloved local eateries, a rich heritage and welcoming waterfront experiences, Chesapeake Beach is a destination where history, nature, and relaxation come together.
